SHAWNEE COUNTY FIRE DISTRICT #1 WELCOMES NEW RECRUITS

SILVER LAKE, KS: On July 14th, 2008, the Shawnee County Fire District #1 Membership Committee interviewed and accepted 3 new volunteer recruits.

The three new recruits are Bobbie Eberhart, Randy Freeman, and Travis LaDuke

Bobbie Eberhart was a volunteer for SCFD#1 3 years ago. She moved out of the fire district and had to give up her position. Recently, Bobbie moved back into the district. Bobbie is a Nationally Certified Firefighter I and is currently working on her Emergency Medical Technician Certification.

Randy Freeman is not new to the emergency services. He has been a certified Emergency Medical Technician in Iowa, Texas and Nebraska. Most people in the Silver Lake area will recognize Randy's name as he is the Superintendent of Silver Lake Schools.

Travis LaDuke is new to the emergency services. He is an active member of the Army Reserves and was deployed overseas for a tour. He currently is employed by the Department of Defense.

The members of the Shawnee County Fire District #1 would like to welcome our new members and look forwards to years of service with them.
